Woodburns Contemporary Indian Whisky Triumphs at International Whisky Competition 2025 held in Las Vegas, USA

ABD Maestro Earns Global Acclaim for Excellence in Contemporary Whisky Craftsmanship

Mumbai, 3rd July 2025 - In a defining moment for Indian whisky on the global stage, ABD Maestro Pvt. Ltd. (ABDM) the super-premium and luxury spirits subsidiary of Allied Blenders and Distillers Limited (ABD) has emerged victorious at the prestigious International Whisky Competition 2025 held in Las Vegas, USA. Woodburns Contemporary Indian Whisky clinched 1st Place in the Best Blended Indian Whisky 2025 category, cementing its position as a trailblazer in India's evolving spirits' landscape. Sterling Reserve Blend 7 from the stables of ABD also won a laurel in the same category.

The International Whisky Competition stands as one of the most respected global platforms for whisky excellence. Woodburns Contemporary Indian Whisky's commanding victory reflects ABD Maestro's excellence in crafting world-class whiskies and underscores the company's exceptional capabilities across diverse segments.

Bikram Basu, Managing Director, ABDM commented, "The recognition for Woodburn's Indian Whisky at the International Whisky Competition 2025 goes beyond the awards themselves. It reflects a broader shift in how Indian spirits are being perceived on the global stage. Woodburns is a blend of 3 Indian malts whiskies and represents the power of bold exploration. This recognition reinforces our commitment to shaping that story, in India and around the world."

The International Whisky Competition represents a benchmark of excellence that validates products meeting stringent global quality standards.
