UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We have heard learned senior counsel for the petitioners and learned senior counsel for the respondents.

We have perused the material on record including the impugned order in great detail.

We find that the impugned order is by way of an interim arrangement which has been passed by the Division Bench of the High court.

The suit and the counter claim are still pending and are at large. However, we find having regard to the issues which arise in these Special Leave Petitions as well as in the suit and the counter-claim, the concerned trial Court shall conclude the trial of the suit within a period of six months from the next date of hearing before the trial Court.

It is needless to observe that the respective parties and their counsel shall cooperate with the concerned trial court for expeditious disposal of the suit.

The trial Court may also endeavour to dispose of the suit as well as the counter-claim within the aforesaid time frame. If necessary, to post it on a day-to-day or a week-to-week basis.

We also say that any observation which has been made in the impugned order is limited for the purpose of disposing of the appeal by the Division Bench of the High Court and the same shall not in any way influence the concerned trial Court.

It is also clarified that the trial Court shall decide the suit and the counter claim on the basis of the evidence to be recorded and on its own merits.

We further say that the applications for rectification, which have been made by both the parties, shall be considered on its own merits.

Special Leave Petitions are disposed in the aforesaid terms.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
