Allied Blenders and Distillers Wins Gold at Global LACP Vision Awards Annual Report Competition

~ Recognized among the Top 5 Indian Reports and Awarded for Technical Excellence ~

Mumbai, 8th October 2025 – Allied Blenders and Distillers Ltd. (ABD), India's largest domestic spirits company by volume has received global recognition at the 2024 Vision Awards Annual Report Competition (Summer 2025), hosted by the League of American Communications Professionals (LACP). ABD won the Gold Award in the Food & Beverage category (up to $1 billion in revenues), placing its annual report among the best in corporate communications worldwide.

Taking a step further, ABD's annual report earned a spot among the Top 5 Indian Reports, a proud milestone in a global competition that witnessed nearly 1,000 entries. Additionally, it received the Technical Achievement Award, highlighting overall excellence in the art and method of annual report communications.

ABD's annual report excelled across every judging category, showcasing strengths in narrative and creativity. The company received near-perfect scores in Message Clarity and Information Accessibility, and full marks in First Impression, Cover, Narrative, Financials, Creativity, and Shareholder Letter, demonstrating the report's quality in both content and presentation. The Annual Report showcases the company's growth, key milestones, and strategic direction, while highlighting its diverse brands and focus on sustainability.

Speaking about the achievement, Alok Gupta, Managing Director of ABD, said, "We are honored to receive the Gold Award and to be recognized among the Top 5 Indian Reports by the LACP. This recognition underscores our commitment to delivering meaningful insights on business performance and upholding the high standards of disclosure. This acknowledgment serves as a milestone in our pursuit to solidify our position as a trusted leader in the Indian spirits industry and to build a distinct and resonant Indian spirits voice on the world stage."

ABD's continued recognition at the LACP Vision Awards reflects its strong track record in corporate communication and its standing among global peers. These honors reinforce ABD's commitment to maintaining world-class standards and it remains dedicated to strengthening the Indian spirits industry's voice on the world stage.
